Edward Williams & Barbara Patterson

11/5/97 10/29/97

Dear Hal,

RE: The enclosures.

Harold saw what he wanted to believe. I mean - got mad. J.F.K. pays off Monroe by drawing up a contract!

Ernest told Barbara Waters J.F.K. needed Sam Giancana's help to arrange an abortion. I know young men at that time who arranged abortions for their girlfriends by flying them to San Juan. They didn't need Sam. Hatta!

Both Wecht and Mares were ambiguous about the Olson autopsy."

How could Wecht have given a blurb to "Mary,

#403-205 Bagot Street, Kingston, Ontario, Canada, K7L 5G8

Fonzie and The Monkey Virus".
I sent you the last chapter. Fonzie was involved in an even wider conspiracy than 11/22/63. Critical analysis and standards are at rock bottom.

But the truth is, as you have demonstrated, wider than website and internet chat group theories.

L.B.J., Russell, Boggs, and John Sherman Cooper all disbelieved the Single Bullet theory. So did Connally. Now that is sinister.

"Never Again" and your interviews on The video "Reasonable Doubt" are more frightening than "The X-Files" because they are true.

Sincerely,

EO